Clerks of Session

From: Lil Rea, Co-Moderator of the Steering Committee

Dear friends in Peace River Presbytery,

We have appreciated the input many have provided in the three World Cafe meetings but realize that many were not able to attend.

The conversations centered around understanding Who we are in PRP, Where are we going, and What are the most critical competencies for the new General Presbyter to bring to the Call? Our two days of conversation were lively, stimulating and enlightening. Everyone's ideas are important to creating a good presentation. Your information informs the content of the MIF (Mission Information Form) which will be our major brochure announcing the search.

Below are the questions used in the meetings and we invite your input. We also asked participants to identify their 5 top competencies from the Mission Information Leadership Form.

Attached is a copy of the Competencies from the Leadership form and the Strategic Directions Focus Points document used primarily as background for question #2.

We encourage you to share your thoughts so that a true picture of PRP and the person we are seeking can be presented.

PLEASE SUBMIT YOUR INPUT TO:

Questions:

Round 1:

Who Are We:

What is the story about this Presbytery that you find yourself telling most often?

What distinction/uniqueness is important to preserve?

What concern do hear most often?

Round 2:

Where Are We Going:

As you reflect on the strategic directions what captures your interest, your imagination, your energy?

As a Presbytery, what can we create together that we cannot create alone?

Round 3:

Who Can Help Get Us There:

As you think about the Presbytery's priorities for the next decade what will be the most critical competencies for the new general presbyter to bring to the call?

Identify your top five.
