

PEACE RIVER PRESBYTERY

Weekly Presbytery Letter ~ September 8, 2016
Rev. Graham P. Hart ~ General Presbyter

SPEAKING FROM THE HART:

Prayers for my son and his family ...

Life is lived mostly in the expected and routine. Driving down a street, we expect other drivers to heed the laws of the road. When we come to an intersection and the light is green, we confidently drive through without a thought, but sometimes, something unexpected happens. Maybe a driver coming from the other way isn't paying attention, is talking on the phone, or carelessly hits the gas and not the brake. In a split second our car and our world are rocked; we are spinning; everything is turned upside down.

We all have been there at some point. Our prayer and hope, at such time as that, is for life to return to the expected and routine.

I ask for prayers for our son, Nathan, and his family: his wife- Eileen, Genevieve who is 6, and Patrick and Oliver who are 3. Their world was turned upside down last week. He was having trouble breathing when he was running. He went to see his doctor, who ordered some immediate tests and a PET scan. The scan revealed a tumor in the mediastinum area of his chest. Subsequent biopsies determined he has a rare, aggressive Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma and the size of the tumor suggested advanced. The oncologist told him he needed to go immediately to the hospital, so he was admitted last Thursday night to Rush/Presbyterian Chicago. Since then he has had all kind of tests and has seen all kind of doctors.

The hope was that he would have started chemotherapy by now. However, since the results of some specialized genetic tests, which are critical in knowing how to treat this type of Lymphoma, are not yet back, his treatment start has been delayed until this coming Monday. Although the wait has been frustrating, diagnosing exactly what he has and beginning the right treatment plan is critical to his long term prognosis. In all likelihood, he will be receiving 5 or 6 different chemotherapy drugs. He may be part of a clinical trial that will add to the treatment plan a new chemotherapy drug used to treat aggressive tumors. He has been told that the first treatment cycle will last 6-8 months.

In the midst of this, Eileen's (Nate's wife) mom, who has been fighting pancreatic cancer, died this past Sunday night. When the family gathered last Thursday to say their good-byes, and the priest came to offer last rites; Nathan and Eileen could not be there since they were on their way to the hospital. The wake will be today (9/8) and funeral service will be on Friday (9/9), so the doctors discharged Nathan late yesterday, so he can be with his family. He will be readmitted next Monday to begin his treatments.

They have a huge amount on their plate. As a family, we have decided that we will each take a week to be with them when Nathan is in the hospital, and help Eileen with their 3 young children, or be with Nathan while he is at Rush, which is about an hour from where they live. I flew up to Chicago last Sunday and will stay until next Tuesday.

Scripture says the rain falls on the just and unjust alike, accidents happen, and life sometimes leaves us spinning. Yet, personally, I know that in times like that EMT's come quickly, doctors respond with treatment plans and hope, prayers are offered, and faith, hope and love can emerge. In and through it all we trust in God's healing mercies.

Over the years I have come to believe that:

Diseases are working, but those in the healing profession are working too;

Forces of evil and destruction are working, but God is working too;

Small minded individuals who spread messages of hate and fear are working, but God and God's people offering the world an alternative vision of love, hope and life are working, too!

Since the beginning - when God's Spirit moved over the face of the deep bringing light and life out of the chaos and darkness - God has been at work, and I believe continues to be at work; and God invites us to join with His Spirit in His work in the world.

Linda and I are feeling sad and bad, and really badly, for Nathan and his family, whose life, routine, and world have been shaken; but I am grateful for the time we have had in the hospital to just hang out, and unfortunately to wait ... and wait ... and wait.

I am thankful for Nathan's faith and the faith community to which he belongs. I am grateful for our family and their friends who have surrounded him in so many tangible ways. I am hopeful because we worship a God of Easter morn. I deeply appreciate the prayers and support that each of you in Peace River have offered. And I am hopeful!

Grateful for this community of faith, hope and love called Peace River Presbytery, and praying that God's healing mercies and presence will with be with Nathan and Eileen and their family!

Graham
