

PEACE RIVER PRESBYTERY

Weekly Presbytery Letter ~ July 25, 2018

REFLECTIONS on the 223rd GENERAL ASSEMBLY "G.A. Daily Blog", by Wayne Largent, Ruling Elder Commissioner

I was honored to be elected as a Ruling Elder Commissioner to the 223rd General Assembly. I decided to write a daily blog to remember my experience. It in no way captures the entire event, but only how I lived it. Thanks to Randy Moody, PRP Stated Clerk, and to Graham Hart, PRP General Presbyter, for their support during the week. Also, special thanks to my fellow Commissioners, Charmaine Ponkratz, Bill Teng and Jeff DeYoe and to Young Adult Advisory Delegate Mariah Martin. Each contributed to my deliberations during the week. If you are interested in reading the blog click below.

Yesterday afternoon, I flew from Sarasota to St. Louis by way of Atlanta. I was concerned that I might not get into the convention center in time to register. When I got to the hotel, they told me they didn't have any more rooms and would I mind if they upgraded me to a queen suite. I told them if that was all they could do it was ok.

I was in Atlanta, waiting to board my next flight, I got a text from a phone number but without a name and it wanted to know if I had arrived. I responded that I was still in Atlanta. I got a note back that said to let them know when I got in so they could help me through registration. I texted back that I didn't know who I was texting, but I was guessing it was Randy Moody. He texted back that it was indeed him. So, when I got checked in, I sent him a text that I was headed to register. I found the place and Randy appeared at my side. He showed me around the general area and then we went to the opening reception. There we met up with Charmaine Ponkratz and Jeff DeYoe. At this time, I was pretty tired so I left them and went back to my hotel.

I didn't sleep well last night but that is not unusual because I often don't sleep well the first night in a hotel. I tossed and turned until the clock said 5:30, the usual time I get up at home. As I was drinking my first cup of coffee, I looked at the time on my phone and it was 4:40! The bedroom clock was wrong. So, here I am waiting to start my day, but am excited about what the week will be.

Stay tuned ...
