

Written as a Christmas prayer and blessing of hope for those suffering loss and grief from the storms and gales of this past year.

Hark to the Call!

TEMPESTAS VINCITUR

Music & Text: Dennis H. Piermont 2024

(st.1 after Mark 1:1-2; st. 2 after Isaiah 40:3-5;
st. 3 after Isaiah 11:1-2,6)

$\text{♩} = 108$

Hark to the call! From the be - gin - ing, send - ing a Her - ald,
As it was told: "Straight - en the crook - ed, build - ing a high - way,
From Jes - se's root comes forth a Sav - ior. God's ho - ly wis - dom
So, may our faith shine on this sea - son: reach - ing to o - thers

7
God brings new life. From dark wil - der - ness we're called to the fit for the Lord! Lift each val - ley, make the hills plains of rests on his brow. All God's creat - ures, as de - fens - es de - worn down in woe. Nei - ther wa - ters nor the wind's fright - ful

12
Word, as we seek to pre - pare this new way for the Lord!
sod, as we wit - ness to - geth - er in the Glo - ry of God!"
crease, move to - ge - ther in the warmth of of God's peace.
might can dim - ish to the pro - mise and pledge of God's light.

12